

News Release

Media Contact: Marcella Bernard
Director of Development & Community Relations
207-783-4663 x 158
mbernard@tcmhs.org

June 16, 2015

10th Annual Inspired Voices Concert is set for Saturday, June 20

Lewiston, ME: This year's Inspired Voices concert, hosted by Tri-County Mental Health Services (TCMHS), celebrates a very special 10th anniversary. The event will take place at the Franco-American Heritage Center in Lewiston. The evening begins with a light reception at 6:00 p.m. followed by the performances at 7:00 p.m. The night will be a celebration of hope and recovery with music, poetry, dance, and individual stories of progress as consumers of services from Tri-County perform alongside local artists, volunteers and agency employees. Tri-County Mental Health Services' Executive Director, Catherine Ryder, will be Director of the show for the 10th straight year. Betty Jensen McIntyre will serve as this year's Musical Director. For more information about this Inspired Voices, visit www.tcmhs.org.

Tri-County Mental Health Services is Maine's most comprehensive agency dealing with the psychological and social well-being of children, adults, and elders, serving more than 10,000 people each year. For over 60 years, the agency has been providing innovative programs and services addressing mental health, substance abuse, intellectual disabilities, and more. Its philosophy of building toward recovery and sensitivity to traumatic experiences of consumers gives hope to individuals, families, and communities in Androscoggin, Northern Cumberland, Franklin, Oxford and York counties.

###