9th Annual Inspired Voices Concert is set for Saturday, June 21st; Sandcastle Executive Director Stephanie Gelinias to Emcee.

Lewiston: This year's Inspired Voices concert, hosted by Tri-County Mental Health Services (TCMHS), will take place at the Franco-American Heritage Center in Lewiston on Saturday, June 21st. The evening begins with a light reception at 6:00 p.m. followed by the performances at 7:00p.m. The night will be a celebration of TCMHS with music, poetry, dance, and individual stories of hope and recovery as consumers of services from Tri-County perform alongside local and regional artists, volunteers and agency employees. Tri-County Mental Health Services' Executive Director Catherine Ryder will continue as Director of the show for the 9th consecutive year with Music Director Kevin Smith joining the Inspired Team for his second straight year.

Sandcastle's Executive Director, Stephanie Gelinias will Emcee this year's Inspired Voices event. Gelinias is the founder and Executive Director of Sandcastle Clinical and Educational Services. She is a licensed speech and language pathologist, an avid fan of Maine, born and raised in Lewiston, and is proud to be part of such a vibrant community. Gelinias sits on the Boards of and is involved with Androscoggin Chamber of Commerce, Lewiston-Auburn Rotary Club, Community Little Theatre, and Androscoggin Head Start.

For sponsorship opportunities and more information about Inspired Voices please contact the TCMHS Development and Community relations office at 783-4663 x105.

Tri-County Mental Health Services is Maine's most comprehensive agency dealing with the psychological and social well-being of children, adults, and elders, serving about 10,000 individuals each year. The agency offers innovative programs and services addressing mental health, substance abuse, intellectual disabilities, and more. Its philosophy of building toward recovery and sensitivity to traumatic experiences gives hope to individuals, families, and TCMHS communities. Despite its name, TCMHS reaches far beyond its traditional service area (Androscoggin, Franklin and Oxford) with services in Cumberland and York Counties and beyond.
