TCMHS Employee Receives State Award

Diane Thibodeau has been recognized by the Maine Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program with the Statewide Excellence in Long Term Care Award. The award was presented by Hannah Pingree, Speaker of the Maine House of Representatives at a Blaine House Reception, and visited the state residence on April 12 to meet with Maine’s First Lady, Mrs. Ann LePage during a “Direct Care Work Appreciation Event.” Diane has been employed with Tri County Mental Health Services since 1997, as a Residential Service Worker, working with adults with chronic mental illness. Her supervisor, Melanie Sparks-Ide praised Diane for her commitment and compassion. “She has taken residents to doctor appointments and on outings to various recreational spaces, but she has also spent time in the hospital emergency room with residents while they wait for a crisis evaluation. Diane will adapt to any situation. She is a regular advocate for the people she serves.”

Melanie Sparks-Ide, First Lady Ann LePage, and Diane Thibodeau, recently honored with the Excellence in Long Term Care Award!
