Doug Rawlings

TCMHS Welcomes New Board Member

FARMINGTON, ME: Tri-County Mental Health Services is pleased to welcome Doug Rawlings to its Board of Directors. A resident of Chesterville, Doug is currently Assistant to the Dean at University of Maine at Farmington. He brings previous board experience with SAVES (Sexual Assault Victims Emergency Services) and Maine Veterans for Peace, along with a passion and commitment to improving the welfare of military veterans. He is a graduate of John Carroll University and Boston College. “We’re very pleased to have Doug join our organization and look forward to his contributions toward our mission,” says Peter Letourneau, Board President.

Celebrating its 60th Anniversary this year, Tri-County Mental Health Services is Maine’s most comprehensive agency dealing with the psychological and social well-being of children, adults, and elders. TCMHS serves over 10,000 individuals each year with innovative programs and services addressing mental health, substance abuse, mental retardation/developmental disabilities, autism, and more. Its philosophy of building toward recovery and sensitivity to traumatic experiences of consumers gives hope to individuals, families, and communities in Androscoggin, Northern Cumberland, Franklin and Oxford counties.
