Tri-County Mental Health Services

Notice of Privacy Practices

Effective Date of This Notice: 06/21/2010

Previous Version Effective Date: 02/20/2003

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Tri-County Mental Health Services is committed to maintaining your privacy while providing high quality care. Tri-County Mental Health Services is required by law to protect certain aspects of your health information known as Protected Health Information or PHI and to provide you with notice of its legal duties and privacy practices with respect to your health information.

“Protected Health Information” is defined in the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) of 1996 [Public Law 104-191, 110 Stat. 1396 in § 164.501] as “individually identifiable health information” as a subset of health information, including demographic information collected from an individual, and

- (1) Is created or received by a healthcare provider, health plan, employer, or healthcare clearinghouse; and
- (2) Relates to the past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition of an individual; the provision of healthcare to an individual; or the past, present, or future payment for the provision of healthcare to an individual; and
 - i. That identifies the individual; or
 - ii. With respect to which there is a reasonable basis to believe the information can be used to identify the individual.

I. HOW TRI-COUNTY MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES MAY USE OR DISCLOSE YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION (PHI) FOR TREATMENT, PAYMENT AND HEALTH CARE OPERATIONS:

Federal law allows for the use and disclosure of PHI, for purposes of Treatment, Payment and Healthcare Operations, without your authorization. Examples are listed below:

For treatment: In order to provide the most effective treatment we may use your information with supervisors, referring and consulting physicians and other providers on your TCMHS clinical team.

For payment: This includes any activities we must undertake in order to get reimbursed for the services we provide to you, including such things as organizing your PHI and submitting bills to insurance companies, management of billed claims for services rendered, medical necessity determinations and reviews, utilization review, and collection of outstanding accounts.

For regular healthcare operations: We may use protected health information within the organization in order to coordinate continuity of care. We may also use protected health information for quality assurance review.

Information provided to you: We may use your information to contact you for appointments. However, you have a right to receive communications from us in a confidential manner.

II. WE MAY ALSO USE OR DISCLOSE YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION FOR THE FOLLOWING PURPOSES UNDER LIMITED CIRCUMSTANCES:

Notification and communication with family: In certain circumstances we may disclose PHI for the purpose of treatment. An example would be speaking to family members or others who may know you during an emergency situation.

Required by law: We may use and disclose protected health information as required by State and Federal laws.

Public health: We may disclose your health information as required by law to public authorities for purposes related to preventing or controlling disease.

Health oversight activities: Information that includes your specific protected health information may be shared with other organizations that assist Tri-County in the course of the organization's daily business operations without client authorization. This may include the agency's auditors, legal representatives, and others with whom the agency has a contract or written cooperative service agreement. If the entity involved is not themselves a "covered entity," as defined in the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), a signed "Business Associate" agreement or contract addendum is required in order to release client identifying protected health information.

Judicial and administrative proceedings: We may disclose your PHI in order to comply with subpoenas (in certain situations), court orders and other requests from legal representatives if allowed or required by law.

Law enforcement: We may disclose PHI to law enforcement in limited situations including, but not limited to: when there is a warrant, or when information is needed to locate a missing person, a suspect, or to stop or report a crime or any other reason required or allowed by law.

Deceased person information: We may disclose your PHI to Medical Examiners at the time of death.

Organ donation: We may disclose your PHI to organizations involved in procuring, banking, or transplanting organs and tissues.

Research: We may use de-identified information about you for internal purposes. We will obtain your written authorization if you are a participant in a research study conducted by or with TCMHS that discloses PHI. In any such circumstances a formal review is conducted before the start of any research activities to ensure your protection.

Specialized and/or essential government functions: We may disclose PHI for military, national defense and security and other specialized government functions.

Workers' compensation: We may disclose your health information as necessary to comply with worker's compensation laws.

Marketing & Fundraising: Any consumer information used for marketing or fundraising purposes will require a properly executed release of information identifying how the information will be used and for how long.

Change of ownership: In the event that TCMHS is sold or merged with another health organization, your health information will become the property of the new owner unless you request otherwise. A authorization will be obtained from you for before disclosure or release of any psychotherapy notes.

III. WHEN TRI-COUNTY MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES MAY NOT USE OR DISCLOSE YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION

Tri-County Mental Health Services will not use or disclose your health information without your written authorization, except as described in this Notice of Privacy Practices. If you authorize Tri-County Mental Health Services to use or disclose your health information for another purpose, you may revoke your authorization in writing at any time. Information released will be the minimum necessary, as designated by you, and for a specific purpose. Documents received from other locations or providers may be re-released, as authorized by you. You will be asked if you wish to review the information prior to release.

VI. YOUR RIGHTS REGARDING YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION:

Right to Request Limits on Uses and Disclosures of Your Protected Health Information

You have the right to ask that we limit or restrict how we use and disclose your protected health information for Treatment, Payment and Healthcare Operations. We will consider your written request, but are not required to agree to such a request. However if we do agree, we will be bound by our agreement except when otherwise required by law, in emergencies, when the information is necessary to treat you, or until the restriction is terminated. Your request must indicate (1) the specific restriction or limits requested, (2) whether you wish to limit our use, disclosure or both; and (3) to whom you want the limits or restriction to apply.

Right to Choose How We Send Information to You

You have the right to request that we communicate with you about your health information in a particular manner or at an alternate address to ensure your confidentiality. Your request must be in writing at the time of intake or with your provider. The request must specify the alternative address or method of contact, and when appropriate, how payment, if any, will be handled.

Right to Inspect and Obtain a Copy of Your Health Information

You have the right to obtain a copy of your record, a report of your record, or to examine your record with a staff person present. Upon receipt of the written request, the Program Manager, or designee, will review the record with you within (30) working days of your request. The staff member accompanying you during the review will document the review in your record. You may not remove the original record from the office, but we will make copies of the items you request. When you request a copy of your health information we may charge for this service.

Right to Correct or Amend Your Information

You have the right to ask us to correct written health information we may have about you when it is incorrect or incomplete. If errors are found, we will amend your information within (60) days of your request, according to established procedures, and will notify you when corrections have been completed. You must submit your request in writing to:

Summary Notice

Notice of Privacy: Consent for Purposes of Treatment, Payment and HealthCare Operations

We are required by law to maintain the privacy/confidentiality of your health care information and to provide you with this Notice of our Privacy Practices. We are required to abide by the terms of the notice that is currently in effect. We reserve the right to change our privacy practices at any time. We will post changes on our web site and provide you with a paper copy of the changed notice at the earliest opportunity.

We may use your information for treatment, payment and health care operations, for example:

For treatment: In order to provide the most effective treatment we may use your information with supervisors and, when needed with the clinical team.

For payment: We may submit some of your information to your insurance carrier.

For health care operation: We may use your information for quality assurance review.

You have the right to request restrictions on the use and disclosure of your information. However, we are not required to agree to a requested restriction.

You have the right to inspect and receive a copy of your information. You have the right to ask us to correct written health information we may have about you when it is incorrect or incomplete. If errors are found, we will amend your information within (60) days of your request, according to established procedures, and will notify you when corrections have been completed. You must submit your request in writing to: TCMHS, Privacy Officer, P.O. Box 2008, Lewiston, ME 04241-2008.

No one else can see your record unless you specifically authorize them to see it with the following exceptions: when disclosure is required to prevent clear and imminent danger to yourself or others (i.e., suicidal or homicidal threat); as mandated by statute for the reporting to the Department of Human Services or the local police any disclosures or reasonable suspicion of neglect or abuse of a child, an elder or any vulnerable adult; or if required by court order. We will make every effort to discuss the matter with you prior to the release of your information.

We may use your information to contact you for appointments. However, you have a right to receive communications from us in a confidential manner and if you would like us to use another address or telephone number to contact you, please make us aware of it in writing.

In order that TCMHS provide the most effective treatment, it is necessary to review your clinical information with supervisors and, when needed, with the clinical team. As an additional protection to you, the quality management review staff of this agency review all case records. This occurs at regular intervals and is designed to ensure the highest quality of service delivery.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have been given a copy of Tri-County Mental Health Services' Notice of Privacy Practices. The notice is also posted in the waiting areas of each location and on the website at www.tcmhs.org
