9:00 a.m.—4:00 p.m.
The Conference Center at
The Bethel Inn
21 Broad St, Bethel ME

Stephen Andrew, LCSW, LADC, CCS, CGP

"Stephen is a masterful presenter... I consider the trainings I've had with him to be the most valuable in my 22 years of clinical practice."

Are you a provider of mental health or substance abuse services in Oxford County?

Do you sometimes feel disconnected from others in the field?

Would you like to feel rejuvenated and revitalized?

Join us on Friday, April 26, 2013 at the Bethel Inn as we find renewal through our conversations during a special day-long retreat led by visionary trainer Stephen Andrew, LCSW, LADC, CCS, CGP.

Stephen is a highly experienced trainer of Motivational Interviewing and CEO (Chief Energizing Officer) of Portland's Health Education and Training Institute. He presents internationally for health-care, criminal justice, social service, and substance abuse treatment agencies, and is held in high esteem by all who've had the privilege to learn with him.

This event will sell out—reserve now!

Lunch and refreshments will be provided, as well as contact hours.
You will be contacted upon receipt of your registration to confirm your seat.
